

APPENDIX

The Monopolies and Mergers Acts 1948 and 1965

Reference to the Monopolies Commission

International Motor Insurance Cards

Whereas it appears to the Board of Trade that it is or may be the fact that conditions to which the Monopolies and Restrictive Practices (Inquiry and Control) Act 1948, as amended and extended by the Monopolies and Mergers Act 1965, applies prevail as respects the provision in the United Kingdom of insurance in respect of third party risks arising in connection with the use in countries outside the United Kingdom of road vehicles insured and ordinarily used in the United Kingdom :

2. Now, therefore, the Board of Trade in pursuance of Section 2(1) of the Act of 1948 as so amended and extended, hereby refer to the Monopolies Commission for investigation and report the provision in the United Kingdom of such insurance as aforesaid :

3. The Commission shall as respects such provision investigate and report on whether the conditions to which the Act of 1948, as so amended and extended, applies in fact prevail.

4. The Commission shall, if they find such conditions prevail, also investigate and report whether the said conditions and any things which may be done by the parties concerned as a result of, or for the purposes of preserving, those conditions operate or may be expected to operate against the public interest.

5. The Commission shall in investigating whether the said conditions prevail for the purposes of the reference limit consideration to conditions which prevail or may prevail by virtue of arrangements or practices whereby insurers charge uniform prices for the issue of International Motor Insurance Cards.

Dated this 20th day of May 1966.

(Signed) D. R. SERPELL,

A Second Secretary of the Board of Trade.
